HOWARD GOODALL'S CHOIR WORKS

NEW

This series sets out to show that far from being a marginal and spare time occupation, singing in groups is fundamental to the way communities express themselves. From the joyous sounds of the Soweto Children's Chorus and Ladysmith Black Mambazo, to the warm, upbeat, gospel Youth Choir from Nashville and the traditional English male choir of Christ Church Cathedral, the writer and presenter Howard Goodall records with infectious enthusiasm, the choral traditions of the world today.

Howard Goodall's Choir Works—South Africa

This celebration of South African music includes the wonderful and joyous sounds of Kids R Us – The Soweto Children's Chorus, Ladysmith Black Mambazo and Ubuhle Bemolweni, along with other groups present at the annual Iscathimiya Competition. The South African Iscathimiya is a call and response style of chorus with rich and haunting harmonies.

DVD Format $77.00 SBD125

Digital Format $99.00 SBL527

Howard Goodall's Choir Works—Bulgaria & Estonia

The clarity and purity of Estonia's Academic Female Choir of Tartu University, The Babi of Bistrisa and Bulgaria's Cosmic Voices are featured in this program. All stand as symbols of national excellence. Estonians take great pride in their music. In 1991, as the Russians conceded sovereignty, they made a point of standing outside their Parliament building and singing national choral songs. We also meet Estonian Arvo Part, one of the leading composers of sacred choral music in Europe, whose music was banned under the Russian occupation.

Digital Format $99.00 LTL520

Howard Goodall's Choir Works—United States

People lay bare their souls when they sing and choirs show people at their best: communicative and co-operative and singing the songs of angels. In this program, The New Testament Youth Choir of Temple Church, Just Us, from Nashville and the adult Praise Choir perform the joyous and heartfelt music that is American gospel.

DVD Format $77.00 SBD127

Digital Format $99.00 SBL529

Howard Goodall's Choir Works—Britain

Boyz'n the Hood is the choir of Christ Church Cathedral in Oxford. This program looks at the choir's daily life, their job, their special school and their 100 year old tradition and compares it to the Salisbury Cathedral Girls Choir. Both choirs are stalwarts of English church music and here they perform music by Byrd, Stanford and Bruckner.
